

A Boy Who Helps (Part 1)
oo o

A boy was sad. He heard his first grade teacher.
 u z ea z u ay

She talked about the problems in Africa. Each year, ea o t u ow z k u

the boy learned, many thousands of kids die there
 e ea ow z u z uv z ay

from drinking bad water.
 u o

The boy's teacher said $70 would buy a well.
 z e ie

That night at home he talked with his mom and dad.
ie oa ea o t z

He said, "I need $70 for a well in Africa."
ea e ea oa k u

His mom said he could do more chores to earn z e ea k oo oa oa z oo money. He vacuumed the house and earned $2. He u ea ea k yoo ow ea

washed windows and earned $2 more. It was the first o t oa z oa u z u

month of 1998.
 u uv

By April the boy had earned $70. He gave the money ie ay ea ay u ea

to the oo group that helps oo build wells in z places ay s z ie like Africa.

k u

Comprehension Questions (for discussion)

1. Why was the boy sad?
2. Why did thousands of kids in Africa die each year?
3. How did the boy earn $70?
4. What did he do with the $70 he earned?

A Boy Who Helps (part 1)

A boy was sad. He heard his first grade teacher. She talked about the problems in Africa. Each year, the boy learned, many thousands of kids die there from drinking bad water.

The boy's teacher said $70 would buy a well. That night at home he talked with his mom and dad. He said, "I need $70 for a well in Africa."

His mom said he could do more chores to earn money. He vacuumed the house and earned $2. He washed windows and earned $2 more. It was the first month of 1998.

By April the boy had earned $70. He gave the money to the group that helps build wells in countries like Africa.